CONTENTS

		Page
Editorial		1
T.D. FORD	Deep weathering, glaciation and tor formation in Charnwood Forest, Leicestershire.	3
P.G. MORRIS	The Namurian succession in the area around the Combes Brook, near Leek, North Staffordshire.	15
W.A. CUMMINS and H.R. POTTER	Rate of sedimentation in Cropston Reservoir, Charnwood Forest, Leicestershire.	31
T.D. FORD	The first detailed geological sections across England, by John Farey, 1806 - 8.	41
P. WORSLEY	Problems in naming the Pleistocene deposits of the North-east Cheshire Plain.	51
T.D. FORD	A quartz-rock-filled sink-hole on the Carboniferous Limestone near Castleton, Derbyshire.	57
A.J. RUNDLE	The occurrence of Upper Liassic otoliths at Holwell, Leicestershire.	63
P.C. STEVENSON	A glacial channel at Sproxton, Leicestershire.	73
W.A.S. SARJEANT	Fibrous chlorites from the volcanic rocks of Derbyshire.	85
L.B. HALSTEAD TARLO	Xenusion - onychophoran or coelenterate?	97
D.A.E. SPALDING	Sources of information for the amateur geologist.
Excursion Reports:-
P.C. STEVENSON	Excursion to Rutland, Northampton, the Fens and The Wash - the Trias, Jurassic, Cretaceous and Quaternary rocks to the south and east of Nottingham.	107
W.H. WILCOCKSON	The geology of Edale, Derbyshire.	109
P.H. SPEED	The Wrekin area, Shropshire.	111
I.D. SUTTON	The geology of Sedgley and Dudley.	112
Correspondence.
Reviews.		117
Secretary's Report, June - November 1966.		121
Obituary: Professor H.H. Swinnerton, by Professor W.D. Evans.		123